

Appendix B: Survey

The following 19 questions were included in a survey that was distributed during the months of January and February of 2015. The survey was designed to supplement the housing needs assessment contained in the study and to ascertain the public perception of housing issues, both from a personal and community-wide viewpoint, within Valencia County. The survey was conducted both electronically through surveymonkey.com and as a written survey document. Paper surveys were handed out to local schools, senior centers, and at other local establishments within Los Lunas and Valencia County. A total of 458 surveys were collected (134 through Survey Monkey and 324 through the written survey). The following charts provides an overview of the survey results.
